QUEEN'S REGULATIONS.

A.O. 474.—Certificates of Education.

The following will be inserted at the end of para. 126a, added to Section VII., Queen's Regulations and Orders for the Army, 1885, by Army Order 293 of 1888:—

1st Class Staff-Sergeant, Medical Staff Corps.

A.O. 475.—Recruiting.

1. It has been decided to dispense with the Primary Medical Examination of Recruits for the Regular Army and Militia, and no Civil Medical Practitioners will therefore be appointed Medical Examiners of Recruits from the present date, and the services of the gentlemen at present holding these appointments will be discontinued from the 1st April 1889.

2. On the discontinuance of the Primary Medical Examination of Recruits, the procedure on enlistment, as laid down at para. 46, Section XIX., Queen's Regulations and Orders for the Army, 1885, will be modified as follows:—

Men offering to enlist at places where (or within two miles of which) there is no military medical officer, will be examined by the recruiter in accordance with the following instructions:—

- (1.) The recruiter should see that the recruit has no palpable deformity, and that he has the free use of his limbs and joints.
- (2.) He should ascertain that the voice is free and strong, and that the sense of hearing is good.
- (3.) He should test the eyesight with the test dot card.
- (4.) He should ask the recruit whether he is ruptured, or subject to fits.
- (5.) He should satisfy himself that there are no external or obvious symptoms of disease or ill-health.
- (6.) He should see that the recruit's appearance agrees with the age stated, and that he does not appear to have served before.
- (7.) He should see that the recruit is of the required chest-measurement, and should measure his height as accurately as possible with the means at his disposal.

The attestation will then be proceeded with, and after attestation, the recruit will be sent for medical examination to the station at which the final approval is carried out, under paras. 53, 54, and 55, Section XIX., Queen's Regulations and Orders for the Army, 1885.

3. The medical examination of Militia recruits who elect to drill on enlistment, will be carried out in the same manner as that of recruits for the Regular Army; but the medical examination of Militia recruits who do not drill on enlistment, and of Militiamen who re-enlist after discharge, will be deferred until they join for preliminary drill or the annual training.

A.O. 476.—Recruiting—Auxiliary Artillery Districts.

The following will be substituted for para. 54, Section XIX., Queen's Regulations and Orders for the Army, 1885:—

54. Recruits raised by agencies under the orders of an Officer Commanding an Auxiliary Artillery District will (with the exception of recruits for the Foot Guards) be finally approved by that Officer, or by the Officer Commanding the nearest Regimental District, according to locality.

The recruiters employed in Auxiliary Artillery Districts will receive instructions from the Officers under whom they are serving as to the approving Officers to whom recruits raised by them are to be sent, and Officers Commanding Auxiliary Artillery Districts will notify to Officers Commanding the Regimental Districts concerned the names and stations of the recruiters who are authorised to send recruits to them for final approval.

3. For para. 183 the following will be substituted:—

183. When it is necessary to cancel the authority for the discharge of a soldier, which has been notified to the Adjutant-General but has not been actually carried out, this will be done by the confirming Officer, who will report the circumstances of the case to the Adjutant-General, and return the discharge documents to the man's Commanding Officer.

4. In para. 187, in the first line, for the word "soldiers," the words "Warrant Officers, non-commissioned officers, and men" will be substituted.

5. In para. 187, in the list of Officers Commanding, after the words "Officers Commanding Regiments of Cavalry," the words "Officers Commanding Royal Artillery Districts," and "Officers Commanding Auxiliary Artillery Districts," will be inserted; and after the words "Officer Commanding Royal Malta Fencible Artillery," the words "Commandant, School of Musketry," will be inserted.

The regulated charge for the deserter's subsistence may be paid, and also a reasonable subsistence allowance for the constable; such allowance being governed by the rules of the county in regard to civil cases. Receipts should be obtained for all payments.

EQUIPMENT REGULATIONS.

A.O. 494.—Small-Arms sent for Special Report.

The following will be inserted after para. 96a, added to the Equipment Regulations, 1881, by Clause 80, Army Circulars, 1882:—

96b. Whenever directions are given for a rifle, carbine, or other arm to be sent to the Chief Inspector of Small-Arms for special report, a label, stating the circumstance and giving the number and dates of any War Office papers and Board or Boards relating thereto, should be fastened to the same for identification.

A.O. 495.—Equipment Accounts and Claims against Corps.

The following will be substituted for paras. 108 (as amended by Army Order 105 of 1888), 112, and 113 of the Equipment Regulations, 1881:—

108. A soldier who, by neglect or mismanagement, loses or renders unserviceable any article of his equipment, will be charged the full value of the article as specified in the Vocabulary issued by the War Office. In the case of arms, the amount charged on account of any one arm shall not exceed forty shillings. The articles will be returned into store if unserviceable, or struck off charge, if lost, by voucher, Army Form P 1925, upon which will be quoted the period of the Regimental Pay List to which the corresponding Army Form P 1963 has been attached. The amount will then be entered for recovery on Army Form P 1963, and credited to the public in the current pay list of the corps.

112. When articles of equipment are ascertained to have been lost through desertion, they will be struck off charge by a voucher on Army Form P 1925, on which will be stated the regimental number, rank, name, and date of desertion of each man, as well as, in detail, the articles taken by him and the value of each article. These articles and their respective values will be entered on Army Form P 1963, and will be charged against the deserter in Form 2 of the Troop, Battery, or Company Pay List N 1506, and credited to the public in the current pay list of the corps.

113. In the event of a deserter, on rejoining, being in possession of any of the articles of equipment charged against him on desertion, as directed in para. 112, the articles brought by him will be taken on charge in the Equipment Ledger, and the amount which was charged against the soldier, on desertion, will be credited to him for such articles as are in a serviceable condition, and will be admitted as a charge against the public, if supported by a reference to the pay list and the voucher on Army Form P 1963 on which the amount was credited to the public at the time of desertion.

A.O. 496.—Browning, Examination, and Repair of Arms.

The following will be substituted for para. 472c, added to the Equipment Regulations, 1881, by Clause 49, Army Circulars, 1883:—

472c. The arms in possession of corps or detachments abroad will be examined quarterly by an armourer-sergeant. Should the corps or detachment not be provided with an armourer-sergeant, and the arms require repair or re-browning, the General Officer Commanding will detail a regimental armourer-sergeant to perform the work, or will order it to be undertaken by the Ordnance Store Department, as may seem to him advisable. The regiment providing the armourer-sergeant, or the Ordnance Store Department, as the case may be, will also provide the necessary materials.

A.O. 497.—Repair and Preservation of Ordnance.

The following will be inserted after para. 507 of the Equipment Regulations, 1881:—

507a. Before the periodical painting of ordnance, carriages, and platforms, the Officer in immediate charge of the guns will apply for the services of the ordnance artificers to examine and thoroughly overhaul the gun mountings. This examination will be carried out under the Inspector of Ordnance Machinery when there is one in the district.

II.—AUXILIARY FORCES. VOLUNTEERS.

A.O. 503.—Transfer of Permanent Staff—Routes.

Paras. 192 and 193 of the Regulations for the Volunteer Force, 1883, will stand amended as below:—

192. When, in order to fill an existing vacancy, the General Officer Commanding a district receives an application for the transfer of a non-commissioned officer from the Permanent Staff of one regiment or corps of Auxiliary Forces to another in the district under his command, he may authorise the transfer, provided that the application be made with the man's own consent and that of the officer commanding the regiment or corps in which the man is then serving, and that no expense to the public is thereby incurred, except when the transfer is made entirely on public grounds, in which case a Route for the service will be issued.

If the transfer entails removal from one branch of the Auxiliary Forces to another (e.g., from the Militia to the Volunteer Force), the non-commissioned officer will, unless he is still serving under his army engagement, be discharged from the one branch of the Auxiliary Forces, and attested on the following day for the other. If the non-commissioned officer so transferred belongs to the Royal Artillery, a report will be made to the Deputy Adjutant-General, Royal Artillery. The authority of the General Officer Commanding for the transfer, and the usual No. 1 report, showing the date to which the man has been paid, will be annexed to the account of the corps to which the non-commissioned officer has been transferred, in which the first charge for pay appears.

193. When the two regiments, battalions, or corps of Auxiliary Forces are serving in different districts, the application for the transfer should be forwarded, through the General Officer Commanding the District to which the man wishes to be transferred, to the General Officer Commanding the District in which the man is serving, who may approve the transfer, provided no expense to the public is thereby incurred, except when the transfer is made entirely on public grounds, in which case a Route for the service will be issued.
